Q.7.

Pointers -

a) In this question talk about your favorite game.

For e.g. Minecraft :

The Minecraft game was first introduced in the year 2011 developed by Mojang Studios. The game was created by Markus "Notch" Persson in the Java programming language.

Minecraft is a game where players place blocks and go on adventures. This includes anything from crafting simple items like containers or weapons, to building structures like houses, castles, and cities, or even making complex mechanical devices, all within the game's world.

Think of it like an endless world of complex LEGOs that allows players to imagine, design and create anything they dream up.

The ultimate goal is to use materials to build equipment and structures like houses or gardens to stay safe from the elements. Ender Dragon is the main threat within this mode, and players can try and vanquish it, though it's not an easy task.

Minecraft does not have violent or gory content in-game. Enemies and other creatures will simply vanish when defeated, and while players can kill non-threatening animals for food sources, these displays are not glorified.
